We have a pleasure of inviting you to the Slovenian Legal Conference »United in Practice« which will be held on 18 and 19 November 2021 as part of the Slovenian Presidency to the Council of the European Union.

The Slovenian legal conference is a great opportunity to hold an open dialogue on trends and challenges in the European legal environment discussing the peaks and valleys of the ceaseless interplay between the national and the EU law. Join us in a debate on the following topics:

- legislative and legal challenges at the intersection of the national and EU law,
- application of the EU law at national level with focus on linguistic issues,
- legislative process and challenges in the digital era.

The conference will bring together amazing and inspiring speakers, representatives of national governments, the institutions of the EU, academia, and legal practitioners.

Simultaneous interpretation SI-EN and EN-SI.

Registration required. Practical information enclosed.

We look forward to your participation.
